<sup>1</sup> The Court has changed this conference to a telephonic conference because (1) the Court assumes based on the notices of appearances that at least one of the attorneys is travelling from out of town to New York for the argument and (2) there is a small chance the Court may need to adjourn the argument at the last minute. If, in fact, the Court's assumption that an attorney is travelling out of town is incorrect, and there would be no hardship to a last minute adjournment of a courtroom conference, the parties may request (if both sides agree) that the argument be scheduled to take place in the courtroom.
